LEWIS J. LIMAN, United States District Judge:

Sentencing in this case is scheduled for tomorrow. The Government has suggested a below-Guidelines sentence. The defense urges that the Court impose a sentence of probation. It is hereby ordered that the parties be prepared to address tomorrow whether, in lieu of commitment to the Bureau of Prisons, the Court has discretion to impose a sentence of time served that includes a term of either home incarceration or home detention and, if so, whether the Court should exercise that discretion.

SO ORDERED.
